Authoritative resource for a sustainable, profitable, and growing Western Hardwood Industry

What is the WHA?

- Founded in 1955 to assist in promoting Western U.S. hardwoods to a position of prominence in the manufacturing of fine furniture, cabinets and pallets.
- Membership consists of individuals and companies associated with Western hardwoods in various capacities to include:
  1. Sawmills
  2. Manufacturers
  3. Remanufacturers
  4. Pallet Producers
  5. Wholesalers/Distributors
  6. Landowners, Timber Owners, Managers
  7. Service Organizations & Suppliers (Freight Companies, Truckers, Consultants, etc.) and Others

Benefits of what the WHA can do for you and your company

Politically Active – As a member of the Hardwood Federation and in conjunction with other groups, WHA works with the USFS, BLM, states and the legislature to provide a voice for the hardwood industry in matters relating to the environment and log supply.

Networking & Socializing with Customers & Suppliers – Receptions at national conventions, annual WHA convention, quarterly Board of Directors meetings, social media posts provide excellent opportunities to share thoughts, and formulate business partnerships.

Grading Schools – To educate you, your employees, customers and suppliers on the characteristics and grades of hardwood lumber.

Scholarships - Internships - Design Contest – WHA sponsors for forestry students in Western U.S. colleges.

Monthly Newsletter – Keeping you informed about market and pricing guidelines, and various impacts on our industry.

Hardwood Education Program – Designed to apprise landowners of the value of their hardwood resources; helping to ensure a continuing supply of this valuable Western resource.
